

Revolution Capital Social Media & Blog Policy

Revolution Capital has adopted the following guidelines for our social media, website and blog:

1. We will strive to have open and informative dialogues with our readers;
2. We will protect the privacy of our clients and readers;
3. We will correct inaccurate or misleading positions in a timely manner;
4. We will not delete posts or comments unless they violate our policies;
5. We will disclose conflicts of interest;
6. We will credit our sources;
7. We will respect intellectual property rights;
8. We will review comments in a timely manner;
9. We will approve all comments relevant to the post except those that we deem inappropriate or defamatory, that include profanity, or that threaten the privacy of individuals or organizations;
10. We will not post specific investment advice or recommend specific investment products in our social media or blog posts;
11. We welcome third-party comments on our social media and blog sites, but our inclusion of these comments is not an endorsement and does not necessarily reflect the opinions or positions of our firm.
